

From Austin to Washington, working for the future of the Texas community banking industry.

The choice is clear.

The IBAT PAC is the only state PAC exclusively committed to representing your interests as a community banker. The IBAT FedPAC was created to give community bankers a voice not only in Austin, but in Washington, D.C., too!

IBAT PAC and IBAT FedPAC contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. All contributions to the IBAT PAC and IBAT FedPAC are voluntary. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal. Federal law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. State election regulations require political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $50 in a calendar year. If you or your company provide investment or securities products or services and you or your company are registered with FINRA, the SEC or the Texas State Securities Board as an investment advisor according to SEC Rule 206\(4\)-5, and FINRA Rule 2030 (the "Pay-to-Play Rules") you may only contribute personal funds to the IBAT FedPAC, and other restrictions may apply.
